

Handwritten Braille characters arranged in five rows. The characters are formed by clusters of dots in various patterns, representing letters and symbols in the Braille system.

